Dear Senator Graham,

This is my second time writing to you about judicial corruption with a request for assistance in getting a Special Prosecutor appointed.

[Third time if a returned email was counted.]

I have experienced judicial corruption and complete disregard for the U.S. Constitution and individual rights (in deference to privilege for the judiciary) within N.C. and now within the Office of the Clerk of the U.S. Supreme Court.

You may be unaware that effectively no process exists to prosecute judges (State and Federal) for criminal behavior; this is especially true when the criminal behavior is deprivation of rights under color of law (i.e. abuses from the bench).

To date, I have only had direct interaction with one F.B.I. agent over the telephone; the agent refused to take specific complaints (which I suspect would amount to between 100-300 criminal allegations between 2 N.C. judges and one U.S. Supreme Court clerk & general allegations about criminal conspiracy to deprive individuals of rights in deference to "protection of the judiciary" which would require additional investigation); the agent ended the call as the time approached 4:00PM having spent a substantial portion of the call explaining why investigations aren't approved and asking about general underlying issues (rather than specific violations).

A call to the Public Integrity Section resulted in no formal complaint being accepted (although the lady I spoke with did say I had a right to forward a written complaint); I was assured that they don't do investigations (as that is the F.B.I.'s job).

The two responses above were effectively: I don't need to take a formal complaint as it is unlikely that any judges/clerks are going to be prosecuted...

In all other cases my efforts to begin criminal investigations of judges have resulted in no response.

[I had previously attempted to obtain reforms through the N.C. process with no investigations/results including contacts to the N.C. Judicial Standards Commission, the N.C. Court of Appeals, the N.C. Supreme Court, the N.C. Attorney General, The Office of the Governor of N.C., and the General Assembly of N.C. -- Only the N.C. Judicial Standards Commission ever responded to complaints and their response was to dismiss without investigation allegations of 64 violations of the Canons of Judicial Conduct by a single judge...]

Many people are unaware that the Judiciary is largely unchecked with most oversight delegated to Commissions or Judicial councils largely/exclusively made of judges and lawyers (who are considered officers of the Court); the conflict of interest is obvious the the layman and the resultant corruption is also obvious.

For example, only eight Federal judges have ever been impeached; one judge actually had his impeachment reversed by a Federal court prior to

It is interesting that the Public Integrity Section which is tasked with punishing corrupt public officials seems increasingly at ease charging members of Congress and the Executive branch but has investigated absolutely zero Federal judges for each of the past two years (based on their reports available on the DOJ website); it is also extremely rare for them to investigate state court judges as well (with no such bias against the states' executive and legislative branches)...

It is time for the Congress to demand reform of the Judiciary!!!

Please stand up for the individual rights of the people.

Please aid me in getting a special prosecutor appointed to review and punish corruption in the judiciary.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Joey Berry

[also appears to be for federal employees]

1-16-15 @ approximately 11:30AM - initiate telephone complaint with USDOJ - Public Integrity Section (202) 514-1412

-Discussed a desire to bring criminal charges against two state judges and a clerk of the U.S. Supreme Court (for deprivations under color of law, obstruction, et cetera); included a desire to prosecute for general corruption within the Judiciary as well.

-She indicated that the clerk issue is likely administrative not criminal (regardless of the criminal deprivation of rights); i.e. within his discretion to obstruct Due Process.

-She indicated that their Section prosecutes Federal matters; I challenged that they also were responsible for state court violations (which she acknowledged as limited); she recommended that I contact the N.C. Attorney General's Office & I mentioned that I believe that his office is directly involved in corruption of the N.C. Judiciary (as a judge involved in a former complaint was made aware of the complaint but the A.G. made no effort to follow-up on the substance of the initial complaint).

-She indicated that their office doesn't do investigations; I indicated that I had attempted criminal complaints with the F.B.I. and they cut the conversation short without taking the specific allegations (which would likely number in the hundreds).

-She noted that I had a right to submitted written materials to their office (and the DOJ for Civil Rights violations).

She would not give a name any identifier to verify the conversation based on security issues; she said I should reference a call made to their office @ 11:49AM on Friday, 1-16-2015 to identify the conversation (but that it is not logged or recorded).

She indicated that I should mail materials to:

Public Integrity Section
Criminal Division
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, DC 20530

1-19-15 @ approximately 1:45PM
[email to Senate Judiciary Committee: whistleblower@judiciary-rep.senate.gov,
Senator@lgraham.senate.gov]

-Point out Constitution power for Congress to overrule the U.S. Supreme Court.
-again request a special prosecutor.

1-21-15 @ approximately 5:15AM
[email CBS - 60 minutes]

1-27-15 @ approximately 4:45PM
[email Senator Lindsey Graham - Judiciary Committee - via web form:
<http://www.lgraham.senate.gov/public/index.cfm?FuseAction=Contact.EmailSenatorGraham> ]
-Again point out corruption within the Judiciary
-Again request aid in appointment of a Special Prosecutor
