Dear Senator Graham,

I am still waiting on a response to my prior contacts with your office.

There has still been no additional action/contact related to prosecuting criminal abuses of my rights by members of the judiciary. Corruption of the judiciary appear widespread.

You are my elected representative in Congress and this issue is more important than any other issue before you.

Judicial Corruption by a single judge potentially does more damage that the 9-11 terrorism attacks in a single week.

Again, please aid me in getting a special prosecutor appointed to address attacks on citizens of your state via a corrupt N.C. judiciary with subsequent failures and criminal obstruction within the U.S. Supreme Court.

There needs to be accountability within the Justice System (for judges, prosecutors, police, et cetera). Currently no real process exists without public and/or political pressure.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Joey Berry

-Discussed a desire to bring criminal charges against two state judges and a clerk of the U.S. Supreme Court (for deprivations under color of law, obstruction, et cetera); included a desire to prosecute for general corruption within the Judiciary as well.

-She indicated that the clerk issue is likely administrative not criminal (regardless of the criminal deprivation of rights); i.e. within his discretion to obstruct Due Process.

-She indicated that their Section prosecutes Federal matters; I challenged that they also were responsible for state court violations (which she acknowledged as limited); she recommended that I contact the N.C. Attorney General's Office & I mentioned that I believe that his office is directly involved in corruption of the N.C. Judiciary (as a judge involved in a former complaint was made aware of the complaint but the A.G. made no effort to follow-up on the substance of the initial complaint).

-She indicated that their office doesn't do investigations; I indicated that I had attempted criminal complaints with the F.B.I. and they cut the conversation short without taking the specific allegations (which would likely number in the hundreds).

-She noted that I had a right to submit written materials to their office (and the DOJ for Civil Rights violations).

She would not give a name any or identifier to verify the conversation based on security issues; she said I should reference a call made to their office @ 11:49AM on Friday, 1-16-2015 to identify the conversation (but that it is not logged or recorded).

She indicated that I should mail materials to:

Public Integrity Section
