Dear Senator Graham,

I am making this weekly request for you to perform your elected functions very short for clarity.

Your office has sent a generic letter (dated 2-9-15) effectively denying that you have any responsibility for judicial oversight or legislation related to interstate violations of individual rights and abuse of power.

There needs to be accountability within the Justice System (for judges, prosecutors, police, et cetera).

As I have previously mentioned, I have spent over two and a half years giving courts an ability to correct their own errors and the abuses of lower court judges to no avail (with approximately 100-300 accumulated violations directly related to three members of the judiciary and substantially more violations likely provable with adequate investigations on additional members of the judiciary).

Currently no real process for judicial accountability exists without public and/or political pressure.

Again, please aid me in getting a special prosecutor appointed within current law or aid in getting special legislation passed to address abuses within the Justice System specific to this matter and/or generally.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Joey Berry
